Application for Bail in the Templeton Case.

PENALTY FOR WIFE MURDER.

Sentence of Hawry, the Adams Express Robber.

CORPORATION COUNSEL FEES.

In the suit of the Board of Supervisors against Richard B. Conneily, the Mayor, Aldermen and Dommonalty of the city have been substituted as plaintiffs by consent.

Judge Lawrence, in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesperday granted a temporary injunction against the Police Commissioners enjoining them from throwing snow on to the track of the Christopher and Tenth Street Railroad Company. The complaint is that the police in levelling the snow, in accordance with the recent ordinance on this subject, have blocksded the track. There will, doubtless, be a prolonged legal wrangle over the matter in the Courts. The case was set down for a hearing on Friday next.

In the United States Circuit Court, Criminal side, yesterday morning, before Juage Benedict. after the petit jury had been called, Henry W. Bomers, indicted for embezzling letters from the Post Office, pleaded guilty and was remanded for

In the case of Deputy Customs Collector Colonel Robert Des Anges, who has been jointly indicted with Gustave W. Ball, Lafayette Graff and Charles L. Lawrence, for complicity in the recent silk smuggling frauds, counsel stated that his case had not yet been placed upon the salendar; that his client was very anxous to have the case tried, and he would, therefore, move to have it placed on the calendar. ludge Benedict said he had no power to order the tase upon the calendar. Assistant District At-forney Purdy explained that Des Anges was indicted with some others, who were being extra-dited, and that they wished to try them all Counsel then moved to have Des Agnes tried separately, but the Court depled the otion. Counsel then sought to have his client discharged on his own recognizance, which was also denied, counsel being at liberty to renew it

THE TEMPLETON SHOOTING CASE. The return to the petition of W. C. Templeton for ball for his son, Duncan D. Templeton, convicted in the General Sessions of an attempt to murder his wife by shooting her, and sentenced to the State Prison for seven years and six months, which judgment has recently been set aside by the Supreme Court, General Term, and a new trial ordered, came up yesterday before Judge Barrett, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

In presenting the case, Mr. John D. Townsend, who appeared on behalf of the prisoner, stated on the 15th of November, 1873, Duncan D. Templeton was arrested for shooting at and maining his wife; that on the 1st Monday of December, 1873, he was indicted therefor in the Court of General Sessions; that he was tried on the 15th of April, 1874, before Recorder Hackett; that on the 19th of the same month he was convicted, and on that on the trial Drs. Meredith Clymer and John D. Moore testified that in their belief the prisoner was of unsound mind at the time of the shooting; that during the progress of the trial many exceptions were taken; that upon such exceptions application was made to Judge Lawrence for a writ of error and stay of proceedings, which were granted; that on the lath of January, 1878, an argument was had on such writ before the General Term of the Supreme Court; that on the 29th of the same month a decision was rendered by the judges thereof reversing the ludgment of the General Sessions and ordering a new trial; that on the 2d inst. the District Attorney served a notice on him; that he had appealed from the judgment of the General Term to the Court of Appeals, and would bring the case on for argument on the 22d inst. After stating these preliminary facts, Mr. Townsend contended that there were abundant grounds for admitting the prisoner to bail. The principal grounds urged were that Templeton had already been confined in the City Prison for over diteen months; that upon the trial of his case abundant evidence had been presented showing that he had always been of weak mind; that four years prior to the shooting his father's family physician had recommended that he be sent to a lunatic asylum; that he now stood greatly in need of carciul medical stiention, exercise and air, and that he is oner was of unsound mind at the time of weak mind; that four years prior to the snooting his lather's family physician had recommended that he be sent to a indatic asylum; toat he now stood greatly in need of careful medical streation, exercise and air, and that he is able to intrinsh good and sufficient ball to insure his prisoner at trial and for sentence. Mr. Townsend then proceeded to read an affidavit of Dr. William G. Stevenson, of Nyack, in which it is set forth that he has known the prisoner for the last three and a-half years; that he had personal time, that he then formed and expressed the opinion that he was not of sound mind and judgment; that he examined him on the 5th last, and found him physically in bad condition, ill-nourished and needing air and bodily exercise, his extremities cold, cutaneous circulation singgish, a bard cough, throat congested, his right lang diseased, heart irregular and unsteady in action; that he complained of intense headaches, where he had received some years since a severe blow; that he found him incapable of a continuous frain of thought; that his health was rapidly deteriorating, and that in his opinion he should be placed in some institution where he would receive proper rate and attention. The affidavit closed by stating that Templeton's symptoms were being greatly aggravated by the painting of the interior of the prison. Having read this affidavit Mr. Townsend referred to the provisions of the Revised Statutes giving authority to the Court to a similar to ball in cases where a prisoner had been convicted and a writ of error granted, and said the only question to be determined by the Court to a similar the prisoner when called for.

District Autorney Phelps opposed the application on the ground that he letter the mental nor the physical condition of the prisoner required taken to the Court of Appeals would be neard in a few days, and that the latter, in such cases, and no did not materially ances the questions did not materially and replied by reviewing the testiment and reading the charge of Recorder Hackett, and he insisted that neither the evidence nor the charge warranted giving a verdict of guilty.

At the conclusion of the argument, which was protracted some time longer, Judge Barrett took the papers, reserving his decision.

PENALTY FOR WIFE MURDER. Edward Mooney occupied, with his wile, rooms street. According to the statements of their neighbors, Mooney was in the habit of getting intoxicated, and when in this condition savagely beating his wife. It was further alleged that on the 28th of October last he came home ate in the evening, and, after some words of aftercation with his wife, he beat and kicked her in a most inhuman manner, causing tojuries from which she died. Mooney was arrested, and after the Coroner's inquest, ascribing her death to inju-ries received at his hands, he was indicted for the Coroner's inquest, ascribing her death to injuries received at his hands, he was indicted for murder by the Grand Jury. The case came to trial yesterday in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Barrett. Mr. William F. Howe, the prisoner's counsel, and Assistant District Attoracy Russell, for the prosecution, and a consultation, at the close of which the lister stated that he had concluded—of course, with the consent of the Court—to accept a bea of manslaughter in the second degree, such plea the prisoner having, by advice of his counsel, consented to make. He laid that he was satisfied the evidence would warrant no higher vertice.

Mr. Howe said that he left assured that the facts foold guarantee no other finding, and he hoped lis Honor would accept the pies.

Judge Barrett accepted the pies, but took occasion to state that he should not do so it this or any other case unless he left thoroughly convinced that the ends of justice were thereby fully accomplished. He alload to structures in the press of his acceptance of a similar pies in the case of John O'Toole who killed Mrs. Hersier with a flatiron by throwing it down upon her head from a fourth story window. In the case referred to no higher verdict could possibly have been accepted by a first, as accepted the pies. He was actuated by the same motives in accepting the pies in the present case.

Mouncy, when asked if he had anything to say him to the State Prison, with hard labor, for seven years.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS ROBBERY. Daniel Hawry, recently convicted in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Barrett, of being concerned in the late Adams Express robbery, was yesterday called up for sentence. The prisoner wore the same look of bravado that characterized him throughout the trial, and looked steadily and deflantly at the Judge. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him he answered curity, "No." A. Oakey Hail, his counsel, said that he rested the case wholly on the legal exceptions taken during the trial. Judge Barrett then proceeded to pass sentence, which he did very briefly. He told the prisoner that there were no palitating circumstances in his case: that he was convicted of a grave crime, and that the evidence and the verdict of the jury and all the surroundings of the case were such that he should consider himself dereflet in duty if he did not impose the extreme penalty of the law. He alinded to his bearing of bravado, and judged from this that, though he had never before been brought up on a criminal charge, he was evidently a hardened criminal. He hoped, however, that this would be a lesson to him and to others employed in the same capacity as he had been. He then sentenced him to five years in State Prison. asked if he had anything to say why sentence years in State Prison.

The risoner replied, "Thank you," in a cool manner, and serency similed as he left the court room with the officers.

PERQUISITES OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL

The suit of ex-Corporation Counsel O'Gorman against the city, to recover his allowances in street openings while Corporation Counsel, came up yesterday before Judge J. F. Daly, of the Court of Common Pleas, on a demurrer to the answer. Previous to 1854 the salary of the Corporation Counsel was $3,500, but in addition to the salary there were perquisites in the way of fees, costs and allowances in all street opening cases. Under this arrangement the emoluments amounted to some $50,000 a year. With a view to reduce these perquisites the Legislature in 1854 passed an act giving this official $6,500 a year for services in street openings, making the salary thus $10,000. It continued thus till the charter of 1870 came into existence, which provided that the Corporation Counsel's salary should be fixed by the Comptroller at $15,000. Comptroller Councily fixed it at this sum, but paid Mr. O'Gorman $6,500 additional, for services in street openings. Comptroller Green refused to pay this additional sum, and in his answer to the present suit for this addition sets up that the charter of 1870 attached to the office a stated salary and that the act of 1854 was repealed by the charter. There was a lengtary argument, Mr. A. Oakey Hall appearing on behalf of Mr. O'Gorman and, D. J. Dean for the city. Judge Daly took the papers, reserving his decision. and allowances in all street opening cases. Under

THE BOMBAY LUNATIC MERCHANT. The estate, amounting to some $50,000, comprising bonds, mortgages and money, of Bonanjie Boromgee Colan, the Bombay merchant, who, after becoming a lunatic here, was sent to Bombay, has, pursuant to an order of the Court, been ever since pursuant to an order of the Court, been ever since in the possession of Nathaniei Jarvis, Jr., Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas. Some time since Judge Van Brunt made an order refusing to transfer the estate to Bombay. An appeal was taken from this order to the General Term, where the case came up for argument yesterday before Judges C. P. Daly, Larremore and Loew. The whole point appears to be as to the channel through which the transfer shall be made, whether through comasel or the British Consul, Mr. Jarvis meantime continuing to hold the estate subject to the final order. The Court took the papers, reserving its decision.

AN OLD RAILROAD SUIT. John S. Prouty brought suit against the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company as owner of 500 shares of preferred stock to have the terms on which the stock was issued enjorced, such terms being the payment of ten per cent dividend on such preferred stock before payment of any dividend on common stock. In this suit he was successiut. Meantime the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company and the Lake Shore, Buffalo and Erie Railroad Company became consolidated. Mr. Prouty undertook, in the judgment, to incorporate the latter companies as defendants, on the faith of acts under which the consolidation was made out. The Court of Appeals decided that this was not the proper way to bring them as defendants. A motion was made yesterday before Judge Donohue in Supreme Court, Chambers, for leave to amend his complaint so as to bring in the corporation as defendants. The motion was granted. cent dividend on such preferred stock before pay-

SUPREME COURT-CIRCUIT-PART 2. Before Judge Van Vorst.

SUIT FOR RENT OF ARMORY. Another of the interminable suits against the city for rent of armories came to trial yesterday in this Court. The suit was brought by William C. Dickel to recover $1,875, a quarter's rent of Nos. 709 and 711 West Thirteenth street, rented by the city for cavalry drills. The usual defence was interposed that a proper demand for the armory was not made on the Board of Supervisors before the execution of the lease, and, therefore, that the lease is void and the city not liable. Judge van Vorst directed a verdict to the city, giving as his reason that his associates on the bench had taken this course in precisely similar suits involving the same questions of law and fact, and he saw no grounds for arriving at a different conclusion.

TOMBS POLICE COURT. Before Judge Kiloreth. "A STRANGER IN THE CITY."

Yesterday morning Mr. James E. Duniap arrived in town via the Pennsylvania Railroad, and while looking around for a truckman to carry his trunk to the Grand Central depot at Porty-second street, he came across Mr. Francis Tamany, who proposed that he be nired. His proposition was accepted, and the trunk having been put aboard Mr. Tamany's truck, Mr. Duniap mounted the box with the driver. The conversation turned on the amount which Mr. Tamany proposed to enarge Mr. Duniap. Mr. Tamany said he would charge pearing that justice might have been deleated by a trail, he accepted the plea. He was actuated by the same motives in accepting the plea in the present case.

Mouney, when asked if he had anything to say miny sentence should not be passed upon him, and a new rambling remarks in reply. The only part which could be understood was that he did not know what he was doing. Judge Barret replied, "You were probably too intoxicated to know what you were about," and then seatenced.

Mr. Duniap just $3. Mr. Duniap became incensed at the audacious proposition and made some general and uncomplimentary remarks, everely reflecting on the character of expressmen in general, Mr. Tamany in particular. When he had adequately part which could be understood was that he did not know what he was doing. Judge Barret to stop and let him get off and take his trunk with him. This the driver remarks to do and drove up into a cross street, where he stopped to discuss finance with Mr. Duniap were also do do and drove up into a cross street, where he stopped to discuss finance with Mr. Duniap became incensed Mr. Duniap just $3. rior fiscal acumen prevailed over the blind avarice of the truckman, who consented, after much blekering, to take $1 and give Mr. Dunlap his trunk. The stranger in the city had no change, so he gave Mr. Tamany as $20 bill that he might go and have it changed. Mr. Tamany went away leaving Mr. Dunlap to take charge of the charger and cart. For twenty minutes Mr. Dunlap ket charge, and just as he was beginning to be a little impatient a man accosted him with. "say, young lellah, where 6ld you git that horse and wagon?" Mr. Dunlap ventured an explanation, but the new comer would not histen; he accused the innocent man from the country with being a horse thlet, and, mounting the box, drove away, leaving Mr. Dunlap and his trunk to wait the action of the obliging Tamany. Officer Hasson came by a lew moments after the new comer had driven away, and Mr. Dunlap gave him a description of Mr. Tamany was arrestee and brought to the Twenty-seventh precinet station house, where Mr. Dunlap awaited his coming. It is needless to say that the "new comer?" was in collusion with Tamany and that Mr. Dunlap was systematically needed. At court famany was neid in default of $500 to answer at the Court of Ceneral sessions. rior fiscal acumen prevailed over the blind avarice

CHRISTINA NEILSEN IN COURT. She is a native of Sweden; she does not sing, but she steals. The cause of her presence in court yesterday was a little caper she cut some time about the 5th of last October while in the employ of Mrs. Jane W. Bartlett, at No. 43 West Eleventa street. On that date she left the house of Mrs. Bartlett in company with a lace shawl, a silk dress and a veivet sacque, all the property of Mrs. Bartlett and valued at $510. Since Christina and the goods disappeared Detective Dunn, of the Central Office, has been looking for both, and it was only yesterasy he succeeded in finding her at No. 48 Chartton street. She said in court yester-day afternoon that she had pawned the stolen property in Boston about one month since. She was held in default of ball to answer the charge.

A BURGLAR CAPTURED. On complaint of Officer Moran, of the Second precinct, Charles Smith was yesterday committed in default of ball to answer a charge of burglary. On Tuesday night the officer caught some men trying to open the door of store No. 216 Front street, occupied by Timothy D. Linnington. The men fied at his approach, but Smith, the hinder-most, was caught and a large jimmy lound in his possession.

JEFFERSON MARKET POLICE COURT. ITS PRESENT CONDITION.

The business of the Jefferson Market Police Court was transferred from the old court room yesterday to the small examination room directly in the rear, where the accommodations for the transaction of the necessary business are altogether inadequate. The box in which the prisoners are confined previous to arraignment will hold, if packed, about thirty persons and the number of prisoners brought to this Court every morning averages sixty at least, and on Sunday morning the number is always in the neighborhood of 100. It is probable that the authorities will not wake up to this disgraceful state of affairs till some sudden death of an accused person of the escape of several prominent criminals takes place. As to the apartment in which the Court is held, it is hardly large enough to seat forty people, and the desk at which the Judge and his clerks are seated will not accommodate even the necessary books of record, the result of all which is interminable trouble and confusion and consequent delay. A place for a new court room has been taken on the corner of Washington place and Greene street, but as yet nothing has been done toward fitting it up. The demolition of the old court room will commence to-day, and it is more than likely that if some speedy action is not taken the present condition of affairs will grow so much worse that the Second District Police Court will have to be abandoned alregether, and the prisoners arrested in the Eiguth, Fifteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth precincts be arraigned at some of the other courts. prisoners are confined previous to arraignment

ESSEX MARKET POLICE COURT. Before Judge Bixby. EAST SIDE BURGLARY.

James Price and James Clark were arraigned yesterday and neld to bail to answer at the General sessions on a charge of burgiary preferred by Jacon Emanuel, of No. 182 Suffolk street. On Tuesday, about ten o'clock, Officers O'Connor and Donnelly, of the Eleventh precinct, arrested the above-mentioned prisoners in Stanton street with seventy-three morocco skins and twenty-one pairs of gaiters, vained in all at $120, in their possession. The property was subsequently identified by Mr. Emanuel as the proceeds of a burglary which had been committed on his premises the same evening.

FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET COURT. Before Judge Murray.

TRACING A STOLEN GOLD WATCH. A young man named Dennis Hickey was committed for triat on a charge of highway robbery, in default of $5,000 ball. The complainant-John Mathewson, of No. 647 Hudson street-testified that on the 5th mst., while going through Washington street, he was robbed by three men of his watch, worth $250. The watch was recovered by Officers Handy and Mallon, of the Eighteenth pre-cinct, who found it in John Allen's pawn shop, at No. 1,229 Broadway, where Hickey had pledged it for $75. Hickey denied having stolen the watch, saving that it was sold to him for $40 by a man named Dunn, who worked in the Twenty-first street gas house. The officers had not searched for such a man, disbelleving Hickey's statement. HOW A CHICAGO MOTHER RECOVERED HER STOLEN CHILDREN.

Yesterday afternoon, on the corner of Thirtieth street and Lexington avenue, Officer Cullen, of the Twenty-first precinct, found two women of respecta e appearance engaged in a desperate contest for the possession of a little boy about five years of age. One of them, who gave her name as Catherine Powers, claimed to be the name as Catherine Powers, claimed to be the mother of the boy and charged the other, whose name was Mary Geary, with stealing him. He took the three to the station house, and thence they were brought to the court. There it appeared that Lawrence Powers, the latter of the child, had kept a saloon in Chicago up to the last of February, and that Mary Geary was his waitress. Without any apparent reason he had sold out his business and one day suddenly left his home. At the same time their two sons, lour and six years of age, also disappeared, and on inquiry the mother found that Mary Geary had also left for parts unknown. Tidings of the fugitives were received by her at the railroad depot where she heard that they had come to New York. Mrs. Powers immediately followed, and has been living since with her sister at No. 228 West Warren street, Brooklyn. She placed a watch on her nusband's movements, and through him found the residence of Mary Geary on Third avenue, near Thirteeth street, where she felt sure of finding her children. Yesterday afternoon, as already stated, and found Miss Geary with the youngest of the children on the corner of Thirtieth street and Lexington avenue.

Miss Geary said she had never been married, apd that she was only taking care of the children for their lather, who was paying her therefor $5 per month; she had taken rooms for this purpose and to take in sewing; Mr. Powers did not live with her and but seldom visited her apartments.

The order of the Court was, that Officer Culien should accompany the two women and the child to Miss Geary's apartments, where the other boy and the one now present were to be given up to the mother. If Miss Geary did not then see fit to comply, she was to be brought back to court immediately. As the two women left the court room the mother attempted to take the hoy from Miss Geary, but the child clutched her skirts, to which he hung with the desperation of a drowning person and would not be parted from her to go to his mother. mother of the boy and charged the other, whose

As the spring time comes on the number of emigrants arriving at Castle Garden is slowly increasing, while the number of those returning is gradually failing off. The pleasant weather of the past few days has had a very agreeable effect upon the interior espect of this great receptacle of humble foreigners arriving upon our shores, and yesterday the huge rotunda was filled with a cheerful, chattering mass of people, presenting a marked contrast to the general cheerlessness which has prevailed throughout the winter. The Commissioners are at present engaged, with all their available clerical force, in preparing answers to some twenty interrogatories submitted by the Committee on Commerce and Navigation of the Assembly, recently directed to investigate the department. As the committee was not authorized to employ a stenographer or to expend any money in the investigation the plan of interrogatories has been adopted, and as these cover the minutest details of the operation of the Commission for two years past it necessarily involves a large amount of labor. the interior easpect of this great receptacle of

COINCIDENCE IN DEATH.

A HUSBAND'S SUICIDE FOLLOWED BY HIS WIFE'S DEATH.

Robert Wehe was found yesterday morning hanging to the door casing of his room, at his residence, No. 304 West Twenty-first street. Just an hour later, and without baving learned of the death of her husband, Mrs. Wene die rom natural causes, having been an invalid for a numnatural causes, having been an invalid for a number of years.

These facts were reported at the Coroner's office during the alternoon by the son of the parties, who states that last Sanday his father got drunk, and while in that condition struck his wife. After becoming sober he was seized with a fit of remorse for his orutal conduct, and this the son pelieves led to his committing suicide. It is a remarkable coincidence that the wife should die so soon after the tusband; but it is the opinion of the son and the neighbors that the blow she received at his hands had nothing whatever to do with her death. with her death.

Webe was flity-nine years of age and his wife sixty-one. Both were dermans. Coroner Kess-ler will hold an inquest on the bodies.
